More than an internship…

Real-World Experience

1820 PRODUCTIONS is an award-winning, full-service global media company that specializes in Reality TV, corporate cinema and commercials. With over 20 years of experience in directing and producing television, documentaries and web series, we are serious about investing in the next generation of filmmakers through our internship program. Past interns have benefited from hands-on experience in one of our 7 post-production suites, on set production assisting and exposure to the creative process of pitching an original series.

We are looking for motivated, solution-oriented, willing and energetic undergraduate and graduate students to lend their time in exchange for an engaging, fulfilling, educational and rewarding experience that offers school credit. Interns will provide support for a variety of projects that will give them solid exposure to the gamut of television and film production, commercial production, development and documentary research.
