

COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

Department of Media Arts

Certificate in Spanish Language Media

The certificate is designed to provide the student with an understanding of Spanish, Latin American, and US Latinx history, culture, politics, language, and media. Students will earn the certificate in addition to their degree in Media Arts or Converged Broadcast Media at UNT.

Hours required: 15 hours (optional recommended internship)

Eligibility: MRTS major status or CBCM major status

Required Core Courses:

RTVF 4450 When taught as Seminar in Spanish Language Media

SPAN 4040 Spanish for Mass Media Professionals

Required Culture Course:

Select one course from this list. If the student has taken a different intermediate-level or advanced-level course taught in Spanish, they may request permission to have those courses count towards the certificate.

SPAN 3140 Mexican Culture and Civilization

SPAN 3150 Spanish Culture and Civilization

SPAN 3160 Latin American Culture and Civilization

Elective Courses:

Select two courses from the list below. If the student has taken other courses with a Latinx or Latin American focus, they may request permission to have those courses count towards the certificate.

ANTH 3200 Latin America

ANTH 3210 Meso America

ANTH 4300 Migrants and Refugees

ENGL 3922 Chicano Literature

HIST 3150 History and Cultural Development of the Mexican American Community

HIST 4160 Chicano Political History

HIST 4172 Modern Latin America 1810-Present

HIST 4190 Mexico 1810-Present

HIST 4200 The Spanish Frontier in North America

PSCI 3102 US Immigration Politics

PSCI 3702 Latin American Politics

WMST 4240 Latinas in/out of Mainstream